

Van Moody Bio

Van Moody has a passion for healthy transformation in individuals, organizations and the world. With a background in business, marketing and ministry he is uniquely qualified to position and empower people for genuine success in every area of life.

Moody's compelling voice has been heard around the world: at the 30th Anniversary of the March on Washington, with Pope John Paul II and his Pontifical Council in Rome, Italy, and in Tokyo, Japan as an Associate Trainer for Dr. John Maxwell's leadership organization, EQUIP. In addition, his radio spots are featured daily on the Steve Harvey Morning Show in Birmingham, Alabama.

A native of Atlanta, Georgia, Moody has studied at some of the most respected academic institutions in the world, including DePauw University (Greencastle, IN), Harvard University (Cambridge, MA), Oxford University (Oxford, England), and the Interdenominational Theological Center (Atlanta, Georgia).

In March 2006, Moody established The Worship Center in Birmingham, Alabama. This thriving church serves more than 8000 members in two locations, with six weekly services and an online campus viewed from as far away as Kuwait.

With his unique ability to understand and communicate timeless truths in highly relevant, contemporary ways Moody challenges and equips his congregation and the world to fulfill their potential and live their purpose. Known for his keen insights and practical application, Moody is a strong visionary leader, a sought-after speaker and leader in both the church and business communities.

Moody is the author of the best-selling book, The People Factor (Thomas Nelson), which has been described as "the most comprehensive work on relationships that has been seen in a long time" and as "the best book on relationships I have ever read."

Moody resides in Birmingham, Alabama with his wife, Dr. Ty, and their two children, Eden Sydney and Ethan Isaiah.
